

Advanced Construction services corp. is an industry leader in the tri-state area in design, general contracting, general alterations and construction management. Advanced Construction's staff of highly experienced and motivated professionals has a proven track record of projects completed on time and within budget.

The Advanced Construction's team can develop and manage construction projects of any size. Whether you are building an entire new building or simply altering or renovating your existing property, we can provide any or all the following services:

- Project Development, Design and Engineering
 - General Construction (All Phases)
 - Construction Administration and Supervision
 - Budget and Schedule Development and Control
 - Interaction with Governing Agencies
 - Project Close Out and Documentation

Advanced Construction's field staff of seasoned professionals provides coordination of all trades involved in your construction project. We offer very personal and hands-on service on site, insuring project continuity and timely completion. No aspect of your project moves without attention of our team assuring the highest quality attainable today.

Advanced Construction's interaction with it's own design team or your chosen design team assures a final design and construction project who outcome will be the client's vision and within the client's budget.

The Advanced / Artistic Companies

Advanced Construction Services Corporation's one and only priority is client satisfaction, which is achieved through recognizing the client's needs and budgets, and providing the most solid construction services available today.

Contact:

Rich Bunce
1 Just Road
Fairfield, NJ 07004
Phone (973) 227-6901
Fax (973) 515.7373 (1)
Fax (732)530-8076 (2)